Reports:
Marianne Sipka, Bloomingdale Branch Librarian, distributed her branch’s Summer Reading Program information and flyers about other upcoming activities. She then introduced two of her staff members, clerk Jessica Schultz and page Cheryl Bull. Marianne presented Debby Stassek with a retirement gift from the Bloomingdale Branch staff and Friends.

Molly Wunderlich reviewed the financial report as of April 30, 2017. The library received the second quarterly payment from the Webster Trust, and the annual $1,000 payment from Geneva Township, a contracted municipality. The Endowment Fund shows a new memorial for Austin E. Dwight, who left VBDL $10,000 from his estate.

Ms. Wunderlich also reviewed the recent Strategic Planning update meeting that staff held May 24, 2017. She reviewed the library’s goals and discussed ways that staff are meeting those goals, and how to make improvements. Several new action items were identified, including new ideas for outreach, better staff instruction for promoting the library’s digital collections, and more staff “cross-branch training.”
Ryan Wieber complimented Antwerp Branch clerk, Jeffrey Babbitt for developing a summer concert to take place in Mattawan on July 8, 2017, and for submitting an LSTA-Library of Michigan grant proposal to fund the purchase of Chromebooks for a summer 2017 coding class for teens at the Covert Branch.

Mr. Wieber reviewed his written director’s report. He noted that the circulation statistics show an increase. MeLCat loans have increased significantly. The new signage is in place for most of the locations. Mr. Wieber will call for the finance committee to meet in June. The 2017 millage rate will be slightly reduced due to the Headlee rollback this year. The total new millage rate is 1.0831. Overall, due to increasing property values, an increase in property tax revenue is expected for the 2018 budget. The actual gain depends on the amounts that come in from Covert Township.

(Motion: Rendell; Second Markel; Voting ‘yes’ – Godwin, Rendell, Hanson, Cutting, Marshall, Abbott, Hulin, Markel; Voting ‘no’ – no one; Absent – no one. Motion Carried).
