Reports:
Molly Wunderlich reviewed the financial statements for the month end December 31, 2018, year end 2018, and month end January 31, 2019. The Library added $142,360.46 to fund balance in 2018. A majority of that amount came from an unexpectedly large personal property tax reimbursement and lower than budgeted salary costs. The January 2019 financial statements show significant property tax receipts to date, and penal fines have returned to normal levels.

Dan Hutchins reviewed the written director’s report. Mr. Hutchins and Sandy Hanson attended the board meeting of the Van Buren Regional Genealogical Society on February 25, 2019. It was a short meeting, and Mr. Hutchins read a prepared statement explaining that the library’s goal all along was to organize and classify both the Library’s and the Genealogical Society’s collections. Mr. Hutchins and Ms. Hanson did not stay for the following programming meeting. Although no formal communication has been made, every indication is that the Genealogical Society does not intend to continue to house its collection at Webster Memorial Library. If there is a separation, the Library will make every effort to determine what reasonably belongs to the Society, and set those items aside.

Mr. Hutchins contacted the State of Michigan Department of Treasury, and the library is not slated to receive a personal property tax (PPT) reimbursement check in 2019. The Department of Treasury reported that it was receiving incorrect property valuations from the school districts, necessitating a change to obtaining property valuation information from local equalization authorities instead. Changes to the personal property valuation of New Covert Generating and Palisades Nuclear Plan will most likely result in changes to their commercial values. The library will likely not receive PPT reimbursements in the future. The positive news is that overall property valuation is rising.

Investment Committee:
It was moved to add associate director, Maureen (Molly) Wunderlich, to Arbor Financial CD and Associated Arbor Financial Accounts. (Motion: Markel; Second: Godwin; Motion: Carried).

Unfinished Business:
The board reviewed proposed changes to the Board Bylaws. By law, the board must have a secretary. A treasurer is not legally required, but it is recommended. After discussion, it was decided to vote on those officers at the next meeting.

It was moved to approve the public comment policy. (Motion: Markel; Second: Campagna; Motion: Carried).

New Business:
There was discussion of offering the online service Tutor.com to students attending schools in the Library’s service area who do not qualify for a VBDL library card. Although the intent of the proposal was to help students, it was decided that residents of the Library’s legal service area must remain the Library’s priority.

Employee Changes:
It was moved to: hire Paloma Medina, Webster Clerk at 15 hours per week; Victoria Jerz, technical processing clerk at 15 hours per week; Amber Blauer, interlibrary loan assistant at 29 hours per week; accept the resignation of Adrianna Fryman, clerk at 15 hours per week, Louise Davis, Gobles clerk at 19 hours per week. (Motion: Markel; Second: Godwin; Motion: Carried).

The next Library board meeting will take place on March 26, 2019 at 4:30 p.m. at Webster memorial Library in Decatur.

It was moved to adjourn at 6:04 p.m. (Motion: Markel; Second: Godwin; Motion: Carried).

Respectfully Submitted,
