In response to Governor Whitmer's decision to close the public schools to slow the spread of the Coronavirus/COVID-19, VBDL is cancelling all classes and events through April 5. This includes use of library meeting rooms in all seven locations.

Remember that VBDL offers a number of online services through which you can download a book, audiobook, movie and music. Visit our eLibrary at VBDL.org and explore Hoopla and Overdrive. You can brush up your Spanish or learn a new language from Rocket Languages. All this can be done from the comfort of your own home!

We do ask that if you are not feeling well, please stay home. Don't worry if your books or movies might be late; remember, VBDL no longer assesses fines for overdue materials. If you do want to renew, you can easily do so online at VBDL.org or by phone, 269.423.4771.

VBDL will keep you posted via social media and VBDL.org if our status changes. Continue to follow the CDC's recommendations: Wash your hands (sing "Happy Birthday" two times), stay calm, avoid touching your face, and read a good book (well, that's our recommendation). Thank you for your patience and support.
