

Library Card Policy

Policy Statement

Library cards are issued in order to identify eligible users and to determine the level of access to services and resources.

Regulations

1. The Library offers and accepts a variety of cards based on the Library's legal service area and reciprocity agreements with other southwest Michigan libraries.
 - A. Resident/property owner card
 1. Available to any individual who lives in the Library's legal service area.
 2. Available to any individual or family member living with an individual who owns property in the Library's legal service area.
 - B. Reciprocal home library card
 1. Available to any individual who possesses a resident/property owner library card from a Michigan library that has entered into a reciprocity agreement with VBDL and resides within a municipality with a dedicated property tax supporting its home library.
 2. This card does not allow access to premium special collections, or access to premium downloadable or streamed media purchased by VBDL. Other restrictions may apply as determined by Library administration.
 - C. Courtesy card
 1. Available to any individual who works in the Library's legal service area but is not eligible for a resident/property owner card. Courtesy card privileges do not extend beyond the individual employed in the VBDL service area.
 2. Available to any active duty member of the United States military or family member living at the same address not eligible for a resident/property owner card.
 - D. Non-resident purchased library card
 1. Available to any individual not eligible for a Resident/property owner card.
 2. May be used by any member of a family. The family members, regardless of how many there are, living at the same address as the person who originally applied for the VBDL purchased card, may each apply for their own card.
 3. Allows full privileges at any VBDL location.

Library Card Policy

4. Requires payment of a semi-annual or annual fee as determined by Library administration. The fee will be based upon the annual cost associated with providing library cards to an average household within VBDL's legal service area. The expiration date will be set to that of the original card. The annual fee is subject to change.

E. Temporary card

1. Available to residents, property owners, reciprocal users, and individuals employed in the VBDL service area who upon initial application do not possess the appropriate documentation to receive another card type.
2. Available to individuals living in Van Buren District Library's service area on a transitory basis.
3. Valid for 90 days.
4. May not be renewed but may be converted to another card type upon presentation of the appropriate documentation for that card type.
5. May be used to borrow up to three (3) physical items at any one time, to use Library computers, and for remote access to the Library's Transparent Language and Princeton Online Tutoring platforms. A Temporary cardholder's record may not exceed three (3) physical items on loan at any time. This card does not allow access to interlibrary loan, remote access to all Library databases, borrowing of items from premium special collections, the borrowing of mobile Internet hotspots, or access to downloadable or streamed media purchased by VBDL. Other restrictions may apply as determined by Library administration.

F. Staff card

1. Available to current VBDL employees.
 2. Privileges are the same as a resident/property owner card.
 3. Is exempt from overdue fines.
2. An individual may only have one card of any type.
 3. An application process must be completed for each card.

A. Resident/property owner card

2. Members of the United States military applying for a Courtesy card must show a photo ID and proof of active duty. Family members living at the same address applying for a card under this section must show a copy of the proof of active duty.

D. Non-resident card

1. Non-resident purchase card applicants must present a current photo ID or other legal proof of identity along with the requisite annual card fee. The annual card fee is due at the time of application or renewal.

E. Temporary card

1. A current photo ID or other legal proof of identity.
2. A street address in VBDL's legal service area or the legal service area of a library organization with which VBDL has a reciprocal agreement.

Library Card Policy

- F. Minors need a parent or guardian's co-signature. Co-signers must present proper ID. A minor's birth certificate may be requested to confirm the relationship to the parent or if the minor is not present to receive the card. Guardians must present current guardianship or foster care custody paperwork listing the applicant's name along with appropriate ID. Emancipated minor applicants do not need a parent or guardian's co-signature but must present legal proof of emancipation listing the applicant's name.
4. Library cards must be renewed every year. Courtesy cards and Non-resident purchased cards must be renewed annually. Cardholders must provide the same type of documentation used to apply for a new card. Minors must renew their cards upon turning 18 years of age to assume legal responsibility for items checked out.
 5. The cardholder is responsible for all materials borrowed on the card and agrees to abide by all Library policies and regulations.
 - A. Lost or stolen cards should be reported immediately.
 - B. The cardholder may add other authorized users on an account to allow others to pick up holds, pay bills, and view items checked out on the account.
 - C. A minor's parent or legal guardian is responsible for regulating all access to and use of Library materials including the Internet and video media or content. A minor's parent or legal guardian will have the option of prohibiting the minor's Internet access and video media borrowing privileges.
 6. Clients should have their library card barcode available in order to use the Library's services.
 7. This policy supersedes all previously adopted library card policies of the Van Buren District Library.
